THE MILITARY MAP SYMBOLOGY

TMPST (Tactical Mission Planning Set) is designed using magnetized tiles on a flexible magnetized dry erase panel which can be hung from grommets or laid out on the hood of a vehicle. Dry erase markers can be used to draw building layouts, terrain and movements. Magnet symbols can be written on with erasable markers and magnets can be placed on a sand table or magnetic white board where the operational environment can be sketched and movements drawn. Set includes magnetized tiles, dry erase panel and markers in a convenient carry pouch. S.O.TECH symbology includes commander, breacher, medic, police officer, EOD, psyops/negotiator and many other symbols applicable to military and law enforcement scenarios. Tiles and panel are in subdued colors for use in a tactical environment. The arrow signifies the automatic rifleman; symbols on the shaft denote the modern assault group member. We created Leader, Recon, Less Lethal, Breacher, Medic and Policeman just to name a few. Also included are Media, Casualties and Non-Combatants.

A troop is injured — you run to and open your trunk — how do you tell which pack has a medical kit inside?

S.O.TECH's identifier patches allow you to Velcro® tag your kit bags and packs according to the mission.

S.O.TECH patches can accept a cord to create a gear bag identifier tag
